Can you solve this Brussels
themed bamboozler?

1. There may be fancy varieties but most Brussels Sprouts are this colour
2. This is a popular time to get the sprouts in
3. Brussels are part of this foodie family, along with carrots and potatoes
4. If you cook your Brussels this way don't leave them too long or they will be soggy
5. Brussels Sprouts grow on this when they are in the ground.

Have you tried a Snapsapple? It crackles like popping candy, smells like fresh socks, and tastes like cola and carrots! Or what about a Gigglebean – a teeny bean that makes you laugh every time you chew? Now it's your turn! Make up your own brand-new fruit or veg – maybe it talks back, grows upside-down, or tastes different every bite! Send us your bonkers botanical inventions – we can't wait to crunch, munch, and giggle along.
